On June 11, 1933, a Pillar of Fire hung over Brother Branham as he was baptizing in the Ohio River. A voice spoke from the Pillar of Fire, saying, "As John the Baptist was sent to forerun the first coming of Christ, your message will forerun the second coming of Christ." Brother Branham told this experience many times, including in the sermon, "A Court Trial," preached on April 12, 1964.

In 1946, the Angel of the Lord met him in a cave near Jeffersonville, saying, "Do not fear, I am sent from the presence of Almighty God." He continued, saying, "Your peculiar birth and misunderstood life has been to indicate that you're to go to all the world and pray for the sick people....If you get the people to believe you, and be sincere when you pray, nothing shall stand before your prayers, not even cancer." One of the most popular sermons of Brother Branham telling about his experience when the angel first appeared to him is "How The Angel Came To Me," preached on January 17, 1955.

On January 24, 1950, in Houston, Texas, a black-and-white photograph was taken which did record the Light. This photograph was examined and pronounced authentic by Mr. George J. Lacy, Examiner of Questioned Documents, Houston, Texas: "Based upon the above described examination and study I am of the definite opinion that the negative submitted for examination, was not retouched nor was it a composite or double exposed negative. Further, I am of the definite opinion that the light streak appearing above the head in a halo position was caused by light striking the negative."
